Thank You to our RCIA Ministry

We would like to take this opportunity this weekend to thank our RCIA Ministry who worked tirelessly for so many months in helping Sue Keating prepare for her full communion into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. We thank them for all their hard work, especially Mary Ann Payne who puts her heart and soul into the preparation of the candidates. Thank you all so much for all that you do and apologies for the oversight from last weekend.

Congratulations to Sue Keating

THANK YOU ALL.

Memorial Mass for Jan McAuliffe.

During our lockdowns and subsequent limitations to numbers at funerals, we were not able to give a proper farewell to Jan at her funeral in 2021.

There will be a memorial mass for Jan on the 19th of May at 11.00am here at Our Lady of the Pines, which will be followed by light refreshments.

If you can, please join us for this memorial mass to remember Jan.

Gospel

Jerusalem Bible © 1966 by Darton, Longman & Todd Ltd and Doubleday & Company Inc.

Jesus said:

'The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice;

I know them and they follow me.

I give them eternal life;

they will never be lost

and no one will ever steal them from me.

The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone,

and no one can steal from the Father.

The Father and I are one.'

(John 10:27-30)

Points of interest and Catholic lore

- The Latin word for shepherd is pastor. It is from this word that we derive many of the terms used in the Church for people with a special role: pastor or priest, pastoral care, pastoral associate, pastoral council. These roles always imply a duty of love and care towards those for whom one is responsible.
- The Shepherd King was an ancient image of God used by the Hebrew people.
- In this gospel text, John is addressing one of the issues that confronted his community: the heretical voices of those who sought to lead people away from—rather than towards—God.

(John 21:1-19) (John 20:19-31) Extract from "The Summit" Online.
