Thank You

We would like to take this opportunity to thank so many people who did so much for our community masses over the Easter Triduum. To all the Liturgy Committee, who put their heart and soul into the preparation of our masses in order to make these masses as meaningful as possible, to our ever hard working sacristan's, who did so much in preparation for and during our masses, to our Music group who prepared and sung all the music for our Holy Thursday and Easter Vigil Masses, to our Youth Group who prepared the music and mass for Easter Sunday and to our amazing group of Altar Servers who played a pivotal role in the masses. Didn't they do well! To all those who silently helped in the background—Thank You! Last but not least, Thank You to Fr Kevin who was here on Holy Thursday and Easter Sunday . THANK YOU.

The turnout for the masses were more than we expected and a lot of people were touched by the amount of effort and ingenuity that went into the preparation of the services. Without so many peoples help, we will not be able to bring meaningful services.

THANK YOU ALL.

Fr Jerald

Year C - 3rd Sunday of Easter 1st May 2022

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

After the meal Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep.' Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.

'I tell you most solemnly, when you were young
you put on your own belt
and walked where you liked;
but when you grow old
you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt round you and take you where you would rather not go.'

In these words he indicated the kind of death by which Peter would give glory to God. After this he said, 'Follow me.'
