Our Story of Faith through the eyes and hearts of Indigenous Christians

On Sunday 3 July, a special Mass at St Patrick's Cathedral celebrated Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday and marked the beginning of NAIDOC Week, when we are invited to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

The Indigenous peoples of Australia have a special relationship with the living world that has both a physical and a spiritual dimension. In his homily, Archbishop Peter A Comensoli noted that every culture, since the foundation of the world, has used familiar images to convey what is truly human—

CHILDREN'S LITURGY TO RECOMMENCE SUNDAY 17TH JULY

It will be held during the 9.30 am Mass every Sunday (except during school holidays). If you have children or grandchildren from kinder through to Year 6, we encourage you to send them along. Children's liturgy helps the children to learn the gospel at their own level and makes attending Mass more meaningful for them. There will be two adults supervising every lesson.

Lessons have been prepared - we still need a few more people to help run the classes. If you would like to be involved, but don't feel comfortable leading a lesson, you may join the team as an assistant, which means helping the children with their activity. If you are able to help in any way, or would just like to know more, please phone Trish Keley on 0431 835 626 or email trish.keley@cam.org.au.

Gospel

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the Law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus 'do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'
