This weekend we welcome back Fr Jerald who has been on a much needed break. So wonderful to have you back in our midst Fr Jerald.

Mask Recommendations

There has been much conversation in recent days about the increase of COVID in our community. This, coupled with an uptake in flu, has brought a strong encouragement from the Chief Medical Officer to adopt face coverings when indoors and in larger crowd settings during this winter period.

The Archbishops office has confirmed that at this current time (last liturgical guidelines last updated 12.00pm on the 20th of July 2022), Face coverings remain optional within Places of Worship.
Parishioners are however most welcome to wear a mask should you wish to do so. We do encourage parishioners to continue to socially distance and utilise the hand sanitisers that are provided.

Year C - 21th Sunday in Ordinary Time

21st August 2022

Gospel

Through towns and villages Jesus went teaching, making his way to Jerusalem. Someone said to him, 'Sir, will there be only a few saved?' He said to them, 'Try your best to enter by the narrow door, because, I tell you, many will try to enter and will not succeed.

'Once the master of the house has got up and locked the door, you may find yourself knocking on the door, saying, "Lord, open to us" but he will answer, "I do not know where you come from." Then you will find yourself saying, "We once ate and drank in your company; you taught in our streets" but he will reply, "I do not know where you come from. Away from me, all you wicked men!"

'Then there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves turned outside. And men from east and west, from north and south, will come to take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

'Yes, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.'

(Luke 13:22-30)

Did you know?

Points of interest and Catholic lore

- The community for whom Luke wrote his Gospel was made up largely of Gentiles (non-Jews). They are the ones from the 'east and west, north and south' who have come to a place at the feast because they came to faith in the risen Christ.
- This is a text about the universality of God's love and the redemption God offers. It is not limited to a particular group or nationality. It is open to all who respond positively.
